Personal Data Consent Form (Team member)

The Innovation and Incubation Center of the Office of Research and Development at National Taiwan Normal University (hereinafter referred to as "the Center") is organizing the 2026 8th Startup Arena (hereinafter referred to as "the Competition"). In accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA), we hereby inform you of the following matters:

1. Purpose and Categories of Personal Data Collection:

- (i) Purpose of Collection: Personal data is collected for the administration of the Competition, including participant management, identity verification, statistical analysis, competition project closure, and other business activities directly related to this Competition.
- (ii) Categories of Personal Data: The personal data collected includes, but is not limited to: name, date of birth, telephone number, university department/major, national identification number (Alien Resident Certificate number or passport number), email address, and other identification documents that may directly or indirectly identify the individual.

2. Period, Area, Target, and Method of Personal Data Use:

- (i) Period: Personal data shall be retained and used for a period of five years following the conclusion of the Competition, or until the original purpose of collection no longer exists or the statutory retention period expires.
- (ii) Area: Within the territory of the Republic of China (Taiwan).
- (iii) Target (Recipients): The organizing body (Innovation & Incubation Center, ORD, NTNU) and relevant competition partners/collaborating organizations.
- (iv) Method: Personal data will be processed and utilized via electronic or physical (paper-based) formats.

3. Your Rights and How to Exercise Them:

In accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA), you may exercise the following rights regarding your personal data held by the Center:

- (i) Right to Access or Review: You may inquire about or request to review your personal data.
- (ii) Right to Copy: You may request a duplicate copy of your personal data.
- (iii) Right to Rectify: You may request to supplement or correct your personal data.
- (iv) Right to Suspend Processing: You may request the cessation of data collection, processing, or utilization.
- (v) Right to Delete: You may request the deletion of your personal data.

How to Exercise These Rights: To exercise any of the above rights, please contact the Innovation and Incubation Center in writing or via email (contact details are the same as those provided in the Competition Regulations).

4. You may freely choose whether or not to provide your personal data. However, please be advised that if you decline to provide the required information, you will be unable to complete the registration for the Competition, participate in subsequent stages, or access related services.

5. Promotional and Media Rights:

- (i) Competition Promotion: For the purpose of promoting the Competition, the Center reserves the right to photograph, report on, review, and publish the works submitted by participating teams.
- (ii) Portrait Rights and Media Consent: The undersigned (participant) hereby consents to the Center capturing, recording, and filming their personal portrait, image, and voice during the Competition. The participant authorizes the Center and its authorized third parties to use, edit, reproduce, and publicly transmit such audiovisual materials for non-commercial purposes (including but not limited to print media, websites, and social media) for event documentation, results exhibition, and promotional marketing. If you do not consent to the public use of your portrait or likeness, please notify the Center in writing or via email (using the contact details in Section 3) during registration or prior to the event. The Center will take appropriate measures (such as avoiding capture or applying blurring effects) accordingly.

Any matters not covered in this Consent Form shall be handled in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA) and other relevant laws and regulations of the Republic of China (Taiwan).

I have read this consent form and I understand and agree to its content.
